

Mrs Papendick Measurement Chart

NAME _____

Height _____

IMPORTANT:

* Measure your actual body, these are different to shop sizes!

* Measure arm bent as in diagram

* Your waist is where you bend at the side

* Remember eighteenth and nineteenth century trousers/ breeches were much higher up the body than modern trousers.

		Waistcoat	Breeches /Pantaloons
J – Neck Circumference		J – neck Circumference		G – Waist Circumference
K-L Shoulder		K-L Shoulder		H- Abdomen Circumference
A-X – Scye (This gives us the armhole depth)		A-X – Scye (This gives us the armhole depth)		I – Hips Circumference (around the biggest part of your bottom)
F- Chest Circumference		F- Chest Circumference		T-C – Crotch to Knee
D-E – Half Back		D-E – Half Back		N – Thigh Circumference
A-B – Neck to Waist		A-B – Neck to Waist		O – Calf Circumference
A-T – Neck to Hips		Neck to actual length of waistcoat required		Crotch to required inside leg length
L – M - Arm		G – Waist Circumference		R-S Rise (crotch depth) sit on a chair and measure from the chair seat to your natural waist at the side.
V – Wrist Circumference		H- Abdomen Circumference		In addition for Pantaloons
G – Waist Circumference				T-U full inside leg
H- Abdomen Circumference				P- Ankle Circumference
W – Bicep Circumference				Strap (if required)P to P under foot

Mrs Papendick Measurement Chart